

DANIEL IN THE LION'S DEN

DANIEL'S FIGHT AGAINST GRAFT IN BABYLON caused his enemies to hate him and plot his destruction by lions. Christ's fight against grafters in the Jewish Temple caused priests to hate him and plot his destruction on the cross. The story is beautifully pictured and told with marvelous real-

THE PHOTO-DRAMA OF CREATION AT BELASCO THEATER-3 P. M. TODAY-8 P. M.

PART FOUR-Wednesday, July 15. - Thursday, July 16.

Tickets Free and No Collection

PART ONE_ Friday, July 17. Saturday, July 18.

The motion pictures of part three were actually taken in Palestine and wonderfully depict such scenes as Christ's last agonizing hour of prayer in the Garden of Gethsemane, where the photographs were made by experts on the very spot He is believed to have kneeled before His betrayal by Judas. TWO HOURS OF ENTERTAINMENT, INSTRUCTION, RECREATION-ONLY TWO WEEKS MORE.

U. S. DIPLOMATS ASSIST BUREAU OF EDUCATION

Department Depends on Envoys for Much of Its Information Regarding Foreign Schools Published Here.

IMPORTANT REPORTS ARE CITED

sular representatives abroad are rendering a very real service in obtaining information on foreign educational move-ments is the belief of the U. S. Burcan of Education. The bureau acknowledges of Education. The bureau acknowledges that it counts on the diplomatic and consular service for a considerable part of the matter on foreign schools it pub-lishes every year for the sake of American school men who cannot go abroad but who need to know what other coun-tries are doing educationally. By special contained statements on industrial tion, contained statements on industrial education by consuls at Erfurt, Nurem-berg, Frankfort, and Cologne. The arti-cle by Raiph C. Busser, consul at Er-furt, on "The System of Industrial Schooling in Germany," is considered of the best summaries of the subject ever published, and has proved particu-larly useful to American school authori-

RED CROSS IN NEW SAFETY CAMPAIGN

National Society Equips Car for Teaching Coal Miners and Extends Its Sphere.

sylvams cost needs to minimize accidents lines worked all night to relieve the con-in the mines, the American National Red festion caused by the accident, but Cross Society, according to officers of the thousands abandoned hope of reaching organization in this city, is engaging in a campaign to lessen the accidents incident to an occupation which is natural-has had agents in the coal fields in Pennevivania, but recently its operations have been extended to those of West Virginia ing in army maneuvers. Two died beand Ohio. Some time ago the Pullman fore they could be taken to field hose Company donated a car to the society and this has been fully equipped with model apparatus and literature. The apparatus shows how sufferers may be re-vived and relieved of pain, while the literature deals with methods of preventing be facilitated, the Interstate Commerce day and he was fatally burned.

Commission has granted permission to "MEAT PRICES RISING: the railroads to transport this car and its occupants free and every railroad has agreed to give the free transportation whenever needed. The campaign for the society is conducted by Dr. M.

duty it is to illustrate and explain the uses of the various appliances and safety The society has had prepared for exhibit on the car first aid packets and a miner's first aid book. A semmary of the instructions contained in the book has been translated into German. Italian, Polish, Hungarian, Lithuanian talian, Polish, Hungarian, Lithuanian of the same field.

Have some rhubard?

Just how far the Washington women of the clubwomen of will co-operate with the clubwomen of the instructions contained in the book has been translated into German. New York and Chicago to arrest the advanced by the same field with require time for decision. Many Mrs. Mitchell last night.

Representative Burnett.

Bemocrats Loosen Up.

"We knew Mrs. Wilkins a long time who would be chairman of the Public Mrs. Mitchell last night.

Who would be chairman of the Public Mrs. Mitchell last night. and Slavak. Operating in the same field of endeavor, the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company has is-sued a book entitled "Mine Accidents and Their Pravention." which has been indorsed by the Pennsylvania depart-ment of mines. It contains more than two hundred illustrations and much information of value to coal miners, which, if followed, will lesson accidents and be the means of preserving many lives annually which now are sacrificed through nen with his stringed instruments be buried under the auspices of the Press Club.

125,000 STRANDED AT CONEY.

New York, July 12.-Dawn today found the beaches at Coney Island covered with the beaches at Coney Island covered with the figures of sleeping men, women and children. Fully 125,000 were caught in the playground of the Metropolis when a blowout in the power station tied up both trolley and elevated lines. The Supplementing the efforts of the coal a blowout in the power station tied up operators in the West Virginia and Pennboth trolley and elevated lines. The sylvania coal fields to minimize accidents lines worked all night to relieve the continuous countries.

100 SOLDIERS COLLAPSE.

Frankfort on the Oder, Germany, July 13.—One hundred soldiers collapsed in the intense heat today while participatpitals.

SMOKES HIS LAST "PILL."

Chicago, July II.-Louis Kalman, 70 accidents and of treating the injured after accidents have occurred.

In order that the operations of the Bed Cross Society in this direction may fast "fill" ignited the bed clothing to-

WE SHOULD RHUBARB!"

J. Shields and a staff of capable as-sistants. The United States Bureau of Mines also has a man on the car whose Housewives.

Porterhouse steak is 40 cents a pound. Have some rhubarb?

women of the District say that only in combined work against the beef king cattle raising.

"Why could not the great waste spaces

Montreal, July 12.—Denouncing
"outrage" the decision by which the colwon him a place among the stars of minstrelsy.

He made several tours of the world,
and on many occasions rulers of Europe
and on many occasions rulers of Europe
darky songs.

A few years ago he retired from the stage and since then had made his home

Montreal, July 12.—Denouncing as an
"outrage" the decision by which the collier Storstad was held responsible for sinking the Empress of Ireland, with a loss of more than 1,000 lives. Capt.
Thomas Anderson declared today that
the case would be carried into the courts
and since then had made his home

Montreal, July 12.—Denouncing as an
"outrage" the decision by which the collier Storstad was held responsible for sinking the Empress of Ireland, with a loss of more than 1,000 lives. Capt.
Thomas Anderson declared today that
the case would be carried into the courts
stage and since then had made his home

Thrilling adventures marked the voyage of the balloon Uncle Sam. William H.
Orangeburg. S. C., July 12.—Rosa Carsinking the Empress of Ireland, with a loss of more than 1,000 lives. Capt.
Thomas Anderson declared today that
the case would be carried into the courts
the case would be carried into the courts
the case would be carried into the courts to have confessed to killing adventures marked the voyage of the balloon Uncle Sam. William H.
Orangeburg. S. C., July 12.—Rosa Carsinking the Empress of Ireland, with a loss of more than 1,000 lives. Capt.
Thomas Anderson declared today that
the case would be carried into the courts to have confessed to killing the very
the balloon Uncle Sam. William H.
Orangeburg. S. C., July 12.—Rosa Carsinking the balloon, said they were carried of the balloon, said they were carried
of the balloon, said they were carried
of the balloon of the darky songs.

A few years ago be retired from the stage and since then had made his home at the Press Club in this city. Nearly asserted that Lord Mersey, president of every night he entertained the news-

FAMOUS TURFMAN DEAD

London, July 13.-Lord Francis Charles England, died today, aged sixty-seven. He was the author of several books and thirty negroes watch the lynching for many years maintained one of the the woman, but offered no resistance.

JOURNALISTIC "DICKER" ON.

himself in the Unionist ranks during the present Parliament are engaged in considering the conditions and the price.

Mr. Astor recently sold the Pall Mall City when she and O'Hosky met and fell

SOCIETY STARS TO SEE FIGHT.

special to The Washington Herald.

Denver, July 12.—Dr. and Mrs. William Whitridge Williams, members of Denver's exclusive society set, will be hosts at a box party Tuesday night, when Stanley Soakum and Charley White fight a wenty-round battle.

EVES BEAT "RUBBERNECK." even Little September Morns Lieb Van Who Spielf on Them.

Mysterious Girl Calls on Mother of Murdered Woman.

OVERHEARD TALK ON CAR

Asserts Accused Was Angry Because Mrs. Naylor Danced with Men at Resort.

A new story which points to a motive for the killing of Mrs. Lola Mitchell Naylor in Twining City last Friday has een furnished to the family of the was Mrs. Navlor's friend.

According to the story given to The Heraid last night by Mrs. Thomas sell today obtained a restitution decree Mitchell, of 713 F street northwest, against her husband who deserted her in Pebruary without a quarrel or other daybeing the first said of related a conversation between william Poland, who is accused of the murder, and Mrs. Naylor on a street murder, and the story gave her murder, and said she lived in F streets porthwest. She was a stranger to Mrs. Mitchell. The streets northwest, She was a stranger to Mrs. Mitchell that she rode to Mrs. Mitchell that the was "griml and firmly resolved" to discontinue its look upon your action in leaving me as a form of self-denial, for property, which is a well-known to escape the service of a writ of escape the service to escape the service of a writ of escape the service of a writ of escap add related a conversation between William Poland, who is accused of the murder, and Mrs. Naylor on a street she told Mrs. Mitchell that she rode up from the wharves on Friday night behind Poland and Mrs. Naylor. Poland. she said, upbraided Mrs. Naylor for dancing with several men at Marshall Hall, as Poland himself is said to be slightly lame and unable to dance.

BE DIPLOMATS, SAYS DANIELS.

Threat Is Alleged. Mrs. Mitchell says the girl told her that Poland's rebuke was resented by Mrs. Naylor. Whereupon, the girl said. Poland warned her not to "get foolish with him." Mrs. Naylor is said to have laughingly remarked that she'd bet a dollar he wouldn't shoot her and Poland is credited with the statement that he would bet 1100 he would.

A search of the neighborhood in which the girl said she failed to locate any one by the name of Ricka Dorr and no such name appears in the city directory. The police and the District Attorney's officer are silent about the case, but it is believed that if the girl who came to the last night in reply to a statement credited to Mrs. May Wilkins, landlady, at 1825 Twenty-third street southeast, who is said to have accused Mrs. Mitchell Representative Burnett Can't Make of Ill-treating her daughter.

"About three weeks ago, Mrs. Wikins was invited to our house to dinner. She came and spent the evening. Later this can they accomplish a reduction.

Mrs. Mary S. Lockwood, founder of the Daughters of the American Revolution, expressed herself against the government's "generosity" with the feeling lands of the West that were used for cattle raising.

J. Later this man Poland came to the house and said Mrs. Wilkins had told him he might buy a puppy from the Mitchell family. Poland came a few days afterward with Mrs. Wilkins and at that time, lands of the West that were used for cattle raising. I upbraised Mrs. Wikins for brinking the man to the house, as my daughter was merely living with us until her husband, John Naylor, could find em-tries are doing educationally. By special arrangement with the Department of State the Bureau of Education receives all reports forwarded by consuls or other diplomatic agents on educational subjects.

Many of these reports supplement admirably the official documents obtainable. Recently Ambassador Joseph E. Willard furnished the bureau with a statement of educational conditions in Spain, which contained interesting reference to the character of university instruction, especially in medicine.

Some of the most useful material in the field of vocational education has been furnished through consular advices Bulletin 65, 1913, of the Bureau of Education in Spain, which now are sacrificed through insured through the means of preserving many lives annually which now are sacrificed through insured through insured through in the many and the many daughter was merely living with us until her economic problem of meat. There is no place left for the herds to feed."

A housewife, Mrs. Nora Rafferty, itwings in the Alendale apartments, believes that the speediest remedy to the high meat price is the boycott.

The housewives will have to substitute vegetables and fruits." Mrs. Rafferty declares. "It is the only alternative if the prices continue to soar, so why not do it now?"

DENOUNCES STORSTAD DECISION.

Montreal, July 12—Denouncing as an "outgate" was merely living with us until her have been retained for the cattle?" Mrs. Lookwood asks. "It is the crux of the conomic problem of meat. There is no place left for the herds to feed."

A housewife, Mrs. Nora Rafferty, itwings in the Alendale apartments, believes that the speediest remedy to the high meat price is the boycott.

The housewives will have to substitute vegetables and fruits." Mrs. Rafferty declares. "It is the only alternative if the prices continue to soar, so why not do it now?"

DENOUNCES STORSTAD DECISION.

Montreal, July 12—Denouncing as an "outgate" was merely living with us suntil her cattle?" Mrs. Lookwood asks. "It is the cattle?" Mrs. Lookwood asks. " year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F.

of the crime by the mob and hanged to a tree. Afterward the body was riddled with bullets. The alleged confession was Ellesmere, patron of literature and the made just previous to the hanging. The negress had been rebuked by Mrs. Bell and killed the child for revenge. About thirty negroes watchd the lynching of

GOSSIP DROVE WOMAN TO DIE. secret of Wife in Name Only B

came Known to Neighborn

New York, July 12.—Leaving a note saying she wished a $300 funeral, Mrs. Antoinetta Garrison, forty, killed herself London, July 12.—Negotiations are pend-ing for the sale of William Waldorf Astor's Pall Mall Gazette and the Ob-server.

Astor's Pall Mall Gazette and the Ob-server.

Astor's Pall Mall Gazette and the Ob-server.

For fourteen years she had lived as in leve. O'Hosky's wife, it is said, left him, leaving her baby, John. He wanted to sue for divorce, but Miss Garrison would not let him.

SENTENCES HER HUBBY. Not to Bean Soup, But to Fifty

Days in Jail.

l to The Washington Herald. antic City, July 13.—Thomas Brei nan was taken before Recorder Keffer this morning for drunkenness and non-support.

Judge Keffer stapped down from the counting. The defendants are the counting the "What's the limit, your honor?"

"Fifty days."
"Then that's it. So long, Mr. Thomas," said the skirted justice.
"Take him below," ordered Judge Keffer, and below went Brennan to await transportation to the county prison.

MONK DIES OF STAB WOUNDS.

St. Petersburg, July 13.-Gregory Ras putin, the lay monk, whose mysterious influence over the Carr and Czarina has caused widespread comment, died today at Pokrowkoje as the result of stab wounds inflicted yesterday by a woman.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

New York, July 13 .- Arrived; Lapland Antwerp: Berlin, from Broanis, from Fiume; Colorado, Milwaukee, July 13.-Seven little sten graphers, seeking a swim, hung their dead woman by a girk who said she He Left Her on Ash Wednesday—to nother of Mrs. Lola Naylor, a girl in Pebruary without a quarrel or other william Poland, who is accused of the forget the past."

The girl who told the story gave her name as Ricka Dorr, and said she lived in F street, between Second and Third streets northwest. She was a stranger to Mrs. Mitchell.

She told Mrs. Mitchell that she rode up from the wharves on Friday night belond Poland and Mrs. Naylor for she said, upbraided Mrs. Naylor for the said. "I would really advise you be to take the middle line of abstinence in the bound Poland and Mrs. Naylor for the said."

I we discontinue liverage of the courtes' letter said: "I look upon your action in leaving me as a form of self-denial, for you left on Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent. I would really advise you to take the middle line of abstinence in the poland and Mrs. Naylor Poland, the boy who determined to give up soap during Lent."

A type of the casualty towns a casualty towns a rented house at 284 Indiana avenue, where she will re-establish her law office and create a new home for her last years.

Many attempts have been made by her treating the property, which is estimated at between like the middle line of abstinence assistance her friends were able to give up soap during Lent."

leved that if the girl who came to the Mitchell home has not already told her action of the youngest naval officer comstory to the authorities, a rigid search of the city will be made for her.

A missing portion of the life history of Lola Naylor with the events leading up to the tragedy was given by Mrs. Mitchell planned."

"UNCLE JOHN" PEEVED.

man in the list, if he were not the head of the Immigration Committee, is on the warpath. He's after the scalps of certain unappreciative members of the Invalid Pensions Committee, Here is his

When the Republicans were in power used to tell my people that I couldn't get any Spanish war pensions for them because the Republicans were too busy increasing the civil war pension rolls. When the Democrats came in I expected to get something. and my people ex-pected me to. Do I get it? I do not. I can't seem to get a look-in."

BALLOON GOODYEAR WINS.

nation Race from St. Louis.

St Louis Mo July 13 -The balloo San Francisco has landed near McLeans-boro, Ill. The balloons are now all down and the Goodyear is the winner, the officials say.

Thrilling adventures marked the voyage of the balloon Uncle Sam. William H. year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. ground with terrific force, the aeronauts falling from an intensely cold atmosphere to one in which the temperature mean."

"He sure will if he takes a notion, but falling from an intensely cold atmosphere to one in which the temperature mean."

The negress was taken to the scene was over 100 degrees.

"I think I can manage him."

ABBEY IS 1,300 YEARS OLD.

Disintly Switzerland, July 13.-The canton of Grisons today celebrated the pil. The girl was there with a smile and 1,300th anniversary of the foundation of a hand extended: the Benediction Abbey here by Saint Sigisbert, an Irishman, who in 64 converted the wild hunters of the Alpine forest. The abbey is reputed to be the oldest in the world except one in Borne.

Struck by a street car early last Friday morning while on Pennaylvania avenue northwest, between Sixth and Seventh streets, William F. Bergman, forty-three years old, an accountant of Pitts
"Oh, yes; but maybe it wasn't altogether your fault. You didn't think the gether your fault. You didn't think the gether your fault. They said I must remember the sai Nevitt will hold an inques

BUNCOED OUT OF $5,000.

London, July 13.—Another American has fallen victim to the ancient English would not let him.

When O'Hosky returned home he found little John asleep in bed and the woman dead in the bathroom, with the gas was worked along the old familiar lines.

AND THE PLOT THICKENED!

Special to The Washington Herald. New York, July 13.—Charging that the plot of the book and the play by the same name. "The Trail of the Lonesome by John Fox, jr., has been infringed in a moving picture play, the publishers, Charles Scribners Sons, today brought suit for an injunction and se-counting. The defendants are the Broad-

KARNED SURPLUS. 1,000,000 A Suggestion for PAY DAY

On pay day is the logical time to start a bank account.

Bring us a portion of your salary and get started in Washington's oldest savings depository. of Same rate of interest paid n both large and small accounts.

National Savings and Trust Company, Corper 15th and N. Y. Ave.

BREAKING HEART'S TALE

lothes on a hickory illmb, finding a Mrs. Belva Lockwood, 85, Obeying clothes on a hickory lilmb, finding a place where the water was shallow, their bath was spoiled by the rubbsrneck fellow, and at this spot even dosgerel will not begin to tell the awful tale of what followed.

The seven little girlies, resented the rubberneck fellow, trapped him on the brink, and beat him to the traditional frazile. Then when his eyes were so bunged up that he could no longer see whether the seven stenographers had donned their clothes or not the girls called a policeman.

John Smith, as he registered at police headquarters, appeared to answer a charge of disorderly conduct today. He is said to be a son of an exclusive family who heard the seven stenographers on a street car plan to take a swim in the Milwaukee River, north of the city, attired only as September Morna.

OH THE GRIM, FIRM EARL!

He Left Her on Ash Wednesday—to Beturn New Year's?

London, July 12.—The Countess of Russel today obtained a restitution decree against her husband who deserted her in February without a quarrel or other loss of which is a well-known story. To home for the past thirty-nine years, the loss of which is a well-known story. To

HIDES HIDDEN TREASURE.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Savannah, Ga., July 11.—Secret Service men are still shadowing Mrs. Charley Craven, whose desperado husband was killed five months ago, leaving his wife an inheritance of buried treasure. Rather than tell the location of the loot she will suffer poverty. She is said to know where $54,000 worth of cash and jewelry less hursed. "Charley risked his life to get the money and jewels for me," she said, "and they are mine. I will cle before I will tell where they are."

ANARCHIST IS SHADOWED.

Special to The Washington Herald.

New York, July 13.—Detectives are watching Alexander Berkman, the An-119th street, where the ashes of the dead were on display all day, were crowded with the curious.

DAILY SHORT STORY.

LOSING A LOVER. By LAURENCE ALPRED CLAY.

(Copyright, 1948.)
When the fall and winter term of the school of District No. 4 began there were thirty scholars, all farmers' children, and some of them living two miles away. Few of the children were more than twelve years of age, but there was Bob Burton, eighteen. He had been the terror of three teachers. He was overgrown, belligerent and obstinate, and he attended school from no desire to learn. ed school from no desire to learn.

When Miss Frances Bailey applied for the school the bluff old trustee with whom she talked laughed heartly and

"Why, you are only a girl!" "But I'm most twenty years old."
"But I don't believe you can lift a good-sized pumpkin!"

"Has that anything to do with teaching "It has a heap to do with Farmer Bur-

"He sure will if he takes a notion, bu nation for tears.

"I think I can manage him. "Well, I'll talk it over with the other directors and send you word."
Two weeks later Miss Frances opened school, and Bob Burton was the first pu-oldest in the world, except one in Rome. He liked her words. A doubt crossed his HIT BY CAR, ACCOUNTANT DIES. mind whether or not she had been told "Haven't they told you about my break-ing up the schools?"

"Oh, yes; but maybe it wasn't altoenth streets, William F. Bergman, forty-three years old, an accountant of Pitis-burgh, visiting at 334 F street northwest, died in Emergency Hospital last night. was goin' to lick me. "That was wrong,"

"If dad told me there were 1,732 pump kins in the cornfield and I forgot the number should I be licked for it?" "Of course not. I am going to tell you that there are four great oceans, Robert, and you needn't remem five minutes. Only this is the point: Suppose you were at a husking bee this fall and some one should say there were only three great oceans and they were Lake Eric, Lake Huron, and Lake Michigan. Would you feel a bit proud if you could stand up and say:

"Ladies and gentlemen, the person is wrong. There are four great oceans, to wit, the Atlantic, Pacific, Argic, and "Wyou bet your boots I should!" heart ily replied Bob; and he repeated over the names until they were firmly fixed in his

The "big boy" in a school either make trouble or fails in love with the teacher One course is about as bad as the other Rob Rurton started in as a model scholar however, that she alone was sure of the memory.

In most country schools, whether taugh: by men or women, the leacher is supposed to get to the schoolhouse first in the morning and build the fire and sweep out. Miss Frances was ready to take this duty upon herself, but upon her first appearance she found Bob aheas of her by half an hour.
"But it was for me to do," she said to the boy.

"You are a lady," was his reply.
"You are a lady," was his reply. "In about a fortnight Bob's mother said

"We can't just make Bob out." "He studies his lessons nights." "I thought so."
"It takes him ten minutes to comb his

"I have noticed that it is very slick."
"And he has sent away for some salve ir something to make a musiache grow."
"The poor boy!"

"And I may have Bob back?"
"And welcome."
"Do you know how I'm goin' to bring; was almost belpless, however. He was behaving himself admirably and she feared to check him. He was studying teacher could read the signs aright. She hard and she did not want a setback.

"It was some time before the girl

"Honest Injun?"

hard and she did not want a setback. him back? I read it in a book I sent deeds more than words. When there came a stormy morning he was ready with his father's team to drive her to drown myself. That will sure akeer school; when the blackboard grew dull he repainted it; when one of the small boys got too chesty he was taken out behind the schoolhouse and addressed with.

New York, July 13.—Detectives are watching Alexander Berkman, the Anarchist, and have orders not to let him leave the city. Under the New York law, the utterance of seditious language is a felony.

The office of Mother Earth, 74 West 19th street, where the sakes of the dead "Bob Burton is in love with the schoolhouse and -addressed about."

The farmer's daughter, went her way in cheerful spirits, and after two or three days Miss Prances had reason to know that the letter had been written and received. Bob Burton was absent from school for half a day and when he returned he seemed to have a heavy burden on his mind.

"Rob Burton is in love with the returned he seemed to have a heavy burden or his mind. When school closed for the day he lingwide behind, and, as the day he lingwide behind, and, as the last scholar passed beyond hearing, he turned to the teacher and said:

"Miss Frances, you must have known for some time that I admire you."

Schoolhouse was swept and warmed. At spelling schools and husking bees and barn dances he was not her escort, but he saw that she reached home safely.

"Aye, you must have realized that I "Aye, you must have realized that he saw that she reached home safely, loved you.

he saw that she reached home safely, loved you."

It was toward spring that a secret was revealed to her. Bafore her coming Bob had been in love with a farmer's daughter living several miles away. No matter if it was "calf love." he had won her heart and then described her for the schoolma'am.

One afternoon when Miss Frances had her for the schoolma'am.

One afternoon when Miss Frances had her for the schoolma'am.

One afternoon when Miss Frances had her for the schoolma'am.

One afternoon when Miss Frances had her for the schoolma'am.

One afternoon when Miss Frances had been obliged to tarry after dismissing school she received a caller in the person of the deserted. She was a girl of twenty, homely and ignorant, but she had her rights.

"I know that I am not fit to kiss your bracks in the mud, but if—if—if—"

"I say, 'he has went,' where it should be 'gone,' but—but—but—"

"I have felt your heart responding to

"You-you ought to be ashamed of the throbbing of mine, and it has yourself" was her exclamation on en- me an idea of what paradise is." "Will you tell me who you are?" asked the surprised Miss Frances.
"Of course, I will. I am Ella Davis."
"And why should I be ashamed of my(Next page, but not committed to

"Because you have stolen Bob from "In fact, Miss Frances, I must give (Tears and sobs looked for, but in

"He was in love with me before you vain.)

"He was in love with me before you vain.)

"The fact is, that another is going to says you must have given him a love hold me to a sacred promise given before you came into my life. (Page 26.) "Fare—farewell, lost one"

And Bob Burton passed out of the ould be made to understand the situa-ion, and then she exchanged her indigschoolhouse and down the road to be met "Then you don't love him?" she sob- by Ella Davia. "Was she tarnal mean about it?"

"Num. She was tarnal good about it." 'My dear girl, I am engaged to be And the schoolma'am went home giggling.

